WELCOME to the Symposium

We are thrilled to have you join us in the heart of Louisville for this pivotal event in cybersecurity. This symposium is a unique convergence of leading minds and innovative spirits in the field. Within this booklet, you will find all you need to navigate the event: a comprehensive schedule of keynotes, panels, and workshops; profiles of our esteemed speakers; details about interactive sessions; and information on networking opportunities. This gathering is not just about sharing knowledge; it's an opportunity to foster collaboration, innovation, and professional growth. We encourage you to immerse yourself in the discussions, share your valuable insights, and connect with your peers in the field.

We hope you enjoy the symposium and the vibrant atmosphere of Louisville!
